DAY 2 – Saturday 23 December 2017

BMLD

Cooked and continental breakfast provided at motel. Today we take a drive down to the picturesque town of Talbingo, around half an hour south of Tumut. Talbingo is home to the Tumut 3 Power Station. Kiama Scenic Tours will provide morning tea here. We then follow the road up to the Talbingo Reservoir and see the amazing Talbingo Dam wall. We will then drop into the local Talbingo Shopping Centre to view the Snowy Hydro Scheme Visitor Centre display that provides information on the power station, scheme modernisation works undertaken, as well as displays and models of the Snowy Mountains Scheme. We then return to Tumut to visit Tumut Valley Violets, where you will enjoy a talk and lunch. Tumut Valley Violets boasts over seven hundred different named varieties of African Violets, all grown by the wick watering system. Return to Tumut for a free afternoon to look around the township

DAY 3 – Sunday 24 December 2017

BMD

Cooked and continental breakfast provided at motel. It's an early start today as we journey to Tumbarumba to enjoy a Boggy Creek Show. The 2 hour award winning show combines all the skill of horsemanship, mustering, whip cracking, working dogs & sheep shearing. Highly entertaining and educational for all. The performance will include morning tea of billy tea, coffee, cake and biscuits. Travel back through the town of Batlow for lunch (your expense). On our journey back to Tumut we will view Blowering Dam, famous as the site of the world water speed record in 1978, and one of the biggest dams in NSW. You can walk across the dam wall for spectacular valley and forest views north towards Tumut and south across the reservoir fringed by the rugged bushland of Kosciusko National Park. Return to Tumut
