This morning we travel to Jemmy's Point Lookout to view the lakes system. We will then visit Nyerimilang Park historic homestead for a self-guided tour. The homestead is the highlight of a delightful garden setting on a cliff top above the beautiful Gippsland Lakes. It is set amongst gardens with plants from different environments, historic farm buildings and pastoral surrounds. Kiama Scenic Tours to provide morning tea while here.

We then go on to Bairnsdale to view the beautiful St Mary's Catholic Church, which has magnificent artwork and stained glass windows.

Lunch at own expense while in Bairnsdale

We then head back to Lakes Entrance to visit the Sea Shell Museum, one of Australia's largest displays of Natural Marine Life. Featuring over 90,000 items, including a 10 metre coral reef, aquariums, model railway room and a huge gift shop featuring shell and ocean gifts.
