DAY 4

BMLD

Full cooked breakfast provided at motel

Today we travel north of Wangaratta.

We cross the border back into NSW to visit the Corowa Federation Museum, where we will have a tour and a cuppa & ANZAC biscuit. A volunteer will give you a short talk on Corowa's Federation link, and many unique and interesting exhibits in the museum, which include sketches by renowned Aboriginal artist Tommy McRae and the Corowa link to Tom Roberts' iconic paintings "Shearing the Rams" and "The Breakaway" which were painted at Brocklesby Station.

We will then go on to Yarrawonga, where we will board the MV Paradise Queen and cruise the mighty Murray at Lake Mulwala. Your cruise will include a wonderful BBQ lunch on board. Please note: due to a possible draining of the lake around this time, cruise may not be able to go ahead. Final details were not available at time of printing. Suitable replacement event will be scheduled if required.

In the afternoon we will go on to the Byramine Homestead for guided history tour of the property. The homestead was built in 1842 by the famous explorer Hamilton Hume for his sister-in-law, Elizabeth Hume and her nine children after her husband was murdered by Bushrangers in Gunning NSW. The Homestead was classified by the National Trust because of its unique design, featuring octagonal rooms.

Sightseeing as we make our way back to Wangaratta.

Check out and departure from our accommodation at Wangaratta.
We head to Tarrawingee this morning, where we will visit Tolpuddle Goat's Cheese. The 120 acre farm produces a range of hand-crafted goat cheeses, using only the milk from the small herd of Saanen dairy goats. The visit will include a short tour, talk and cheese tasting. It is always encouraged for visitors to get up close and meet/pat the goats.

Morning tea stop along the way provided by Kiama Scenic Tours
We then go on to the town of Yackandandah. The national trust listed town is full of antique stores and craft galleries, and while browsing you can admire the ornate shops with their original fittings. Be sure to drop into Vintage Alley, run by the wife of singer/songwriter, Golden Guitar winner & Yackandandah local Pete Denahy!!!

Lunch during our stop in Yackandandah (your expense).
We then head back into NSW and visit Tartex Textiles at Tarcutta for factory tour. Learn first hand the production of the Merino Wool Knitwear range. The knitting machines will be demonstrated by staff, and you will be given the chance to purchase garments and products.

In the afternoon we arrive in Gundagai, where we will enjoy another overnight stay at the Sovereign Inn.
